

—LOVE AT FIRST KISS—

Erin Boede & Ty Thunell

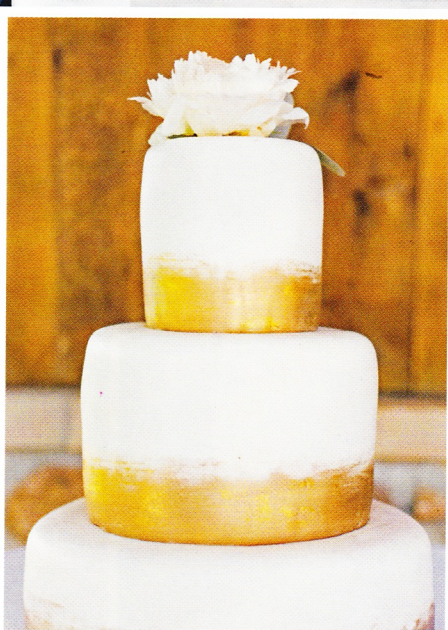

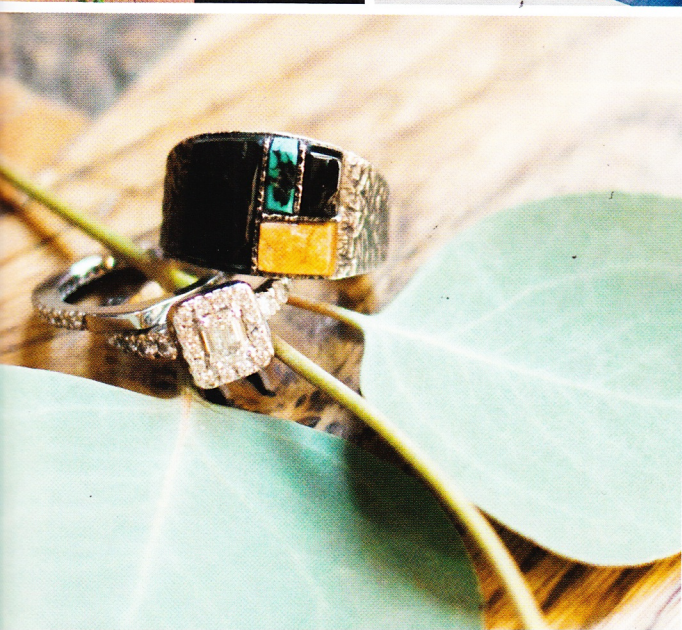

May 30, 2015

NAMES Erin Boede and Ty Thunell LIVE IN Sugarhouse OCCUPATIONS She works in marketing and freelance wedding photography; he works in sales training and freelance welding.

WHERE THEY MET In elementary school; they were each other's first kiss and first boyfriend/girlfriend. They split ways growing up but always stayed in contact and had mutual friends. Eventually they rekindled their childhood romance and started seriously dating in 2013. HOW HE PROPOSED While out to dinner at Pago WEDDING TIME 5 p.m. WEDDING WEATHER Sunny and warm NUMBER OF GUESTS 175 WEDDING STYLE Modern; although they wed at a ranch, they didn't want a country barn wedding. COLORS White, gray, rose gold, gold, and silver HOW THEY

DETAILS She wore a custom two-piece gown with a hand-embroidered Chantilly lace bodice with pearls and crystals and a silk crepe skirt; he wore a bespoke slim-fit cobalt blue suit. FLOWERS Their florist designed the floral ceremony arch, barnwood wall décor, column pieces, and centerpieces with lush and natural blooms. RECEPTION MENU Local cheese and honey; hummus, salsa, and other dips; beef, pork, and tuna sliders; citrus and wedge salads; roasted veggies DRINKS A wine and champagne bar, flavored lemonades, and soda DESSERT Mini lemon curd custards, chocolate chip bread puddings, and chocolate flourless cakes; Italian crème and Funfetti wedding cake FAVORITE RECEPTION MOMENT Watching their parents get their groove on with the bridesmaids and

We wanted to have an outdoor ranch-style wedding without the country-chic feel. Ty and I both prefer modern and contemporary design elements, and I think we did a great job bringing that to life at our wedding.
